VENEZUELA AND COLOMBIA

Tha Former Wants to Recognize the Enemies of the Latter.

PORT OF SPAIN, Island of Trinidad, August 1.—The Venezuelan Minister of War, Senor Pulido, who is the leader of an important political party, has resigned, after a violent scene in the Cabinet, during which the Minister refused to accept the orders of President Castro to recognize the revolutionists in Colombia as belligerents and to deliver a passport to Senor Rico, the Colombian Minister. Pulido denies that the invaders of Venezuelan territory are Colombians, as President Castro claims, but insists that they are revolutionists. The resignation of the War Minister has caused a profound impression. The situation is critical. The Government troops have been defeated in their first encounter with the rebels near San Cristobal. Other uprisings are taking place in the interior of the country. Senor Guerra succeeds Pulido as Minister of War.

CHICAGO, August 2.—"The men who are trying to overthrow the Venezuelan Government by inciting a revolt in the western mountains and by trying to draw Colombia into the trouble are friends of former President Andrade," says Pedro Alvizua, Venezuelan Consul in Chicago.

"When the ex-President was expelled some of the mountain people were still in sympathy with him but they are few in number and can accomplish little. They are trying to induce Colombia to take their side against President Castro, and the Government now in control in Venezuela. I do not think they can succeed in that. The heads of the two Governments are on the best of terms, and there is not the slightest enmity between the people. Dr. Cariveros, the leader of the revolution, may possibly be able to find a few recruits among the Colombians, but they will be so very few that they will not add materially to his forces.

"There is another reason why Colombia will not interfere with affairs in Venezuela. Colombia is herself engaged in a revolution at the present moment."

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, August 2.—In consequence of the resignation of Senor Pulido, Minister of War, it is feared that President Castro of Venezuela, as proposed to the Cabinet, will declare war against Colombia, notwithstanding public opinion against such a move.

The President, it is understood, suggested that passports be handed to the Minister from Colombia.

It is feared that the most serious complications will follow the present situation.

NEW YORK, August 2.—Venezuela is again on the eve of a revolution and not only is that unfortunate republic approaching a state of civil war but serious complications will, in all probability, arise between the Governments of Venezuela and Colombia, says the Port of Spain (Trinidad) correspondent of the Herald. President Castro, while facing the uprising against his own authority, is also accused of furthering directly the revolution against the Colombian Government.

Arms, ammunition and the other accessories of war have been quietly smuggled into Venezuela through the waterways of the republic, and the first engagement is expected to be the signal for uprisings in several widely separated districts.

General Castro is expected to again assert his power by placing a strict censorship on all telegraph dispatches from that country as well as ordering a close scrutiny of all mail matter passing through the general postoffice in Caracas.

To add to the seriousness of the situation in Venezuela itself, it is well known that in the adjoining Republic of Colombia a very strong feeling of resentment against the Castro government exists on account of what is considered a serious breach of international law on the part of Venezuela for its alleged recognition of, if not actual assistance, to the leaders of the revolutionary party of Colombia.

It is even said that not only has the Venezuelan government permitted its ports to be used by the Colombian revolutionists as a base for the collection of supplies, but it has winked at, if not actually assisted, the Colombian revolutionists with certain articles of war.

NEW YORK, August 2.—A dispatch to the Herald from Port of Spain, Trinidad, says:

A report has been current that General Rafael Uribe-Urbe, from Antiquia, Republic of Colombia, arrived in Caracas several days ago under the name of "Senor Victor Torro," and had an interview of about three hours with General Castro. He went to La Guayra soon afterward and proceeded on board the Venezuelan gunboat Augusto, the name of which had been changed to Zumbador. He found it well supplied with munitions of war and started immediately for Maracaibo, where he met about 3,000 troops on the frontier between Venezuela and Colombia, ready to act at once in the invasion of Colombian territory.

Within twenty-four hours another dispatch was received here that the Colombian Government had discovered the plan laid down by General Uribe-Urbe after his consultation with General Castro and that 6,000 Colombian soldiers had been sent out to meet the invaders.

A New Virtuoso.

NEW YORK, August 2.—According to the World, Daniel Frohman, who has just returned from Europe, has departed from his usual custom in engaging a musician, Kubelik. It is explained, however, that Mr. Frohman had heard while abroad that Kubelik, whose work as a violinist had surprised London, was disengaged and in Russia, where he was held for military service. Mr. Frohman negotiated his release and after paying a bonus succeeded in getting him. Kubelik will appear in this city the first week in December. He will play in New York and Boston for six weeks, when he will go on a tour through the West.

KIMBERLY NOT ABLE TO SERVE

The Old Admiral Too Ill to Appear on Schley Court.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Navy Department did not announce today the successor to Admiral Kimberly, on the Schley court of inquiry. The following correspondence with Admiral Kimberly relative to the latter's declination was made public today:

West Newton, Mass., July 29, 1901.
Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of rescript of a court of inquiry which is to convene on the 12th of September, in which I am named as a member. I regret to have to request that I may be detached from said duty owing to disability from a weak heart, and its attending complications, being under medical treatment for the same.

Much to my mortification this is the first department order that I am unable to honor during a naval life of fifty-five years. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant.

L. A. KIMBERLY,
Rear Admiral, U. S. N. (retired).
John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy,
Washington, D. C.

Navy Department,
Washington, August 2, 1901.

Sir—The department is in receipt of your letter of the 29th, expressing a regret on your part at being obliged to ask that you may be detached from the duty of serving upon the court of inquiry convened the 12th of September next. The department learns with regret that you are suffering from a weak heart and its attending complications, for which you are under medical treatment. Such being the case, the department is reluctantly compelled to grant your request.

Our letter containing "Much to my mortification this is the first department order that I am unable to honor during a naval life of fifty-five years." Let me hasten to assure you that there is no cause for mortification at this incident. On the contrary, it affords an opportunity of which the department gladly avails itself to congratulate you for a record so loyal to the service. Moreover, this record amply justifies the wisdom of the Secretary of the Navy in assigning to you the grave and conspicuous duty of serving upon the court.

Permit me to express the hope that your health will continue to improve, so that in future should a less arduous duty be required of you, you may be fully able to respond. Very respectfully,
F. W. HACKETT,
Acting Secretary.

Rear Admiral L. A. Kimberly, U. S. N. (retired), West Newton, Mass.

THE LATEST PHASES OF GIGANTIC STEEL STRIKE

Carnegie Steel Company that President

Schwab was not in this city. The conference adjourned at noon and issued the following:

"There is nothing to give out. We will reopen at 2 o'clock."

It is absolutely impossible to get any of the conferees to give an expression of what has or will be done.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 2.—The big steel combine is utilizing negro labor to supplant its white workers in the Newburg mills here. Already a couple of hundred of colored men have come to the city from Pittsburgh, Homestead and adjacent iron centers in Pennsylvania. They are domiciled in a large dwelling house at the mill.

The negroes from Alabama and Tennessee, according to the colored agent of the steel corporation, see in this strike a glorious opportunity to improve their condition, and are flocking north in large numbers.

It is also asserted that the steel corporation has given authority to its agents to gather all the colored iron workers possible, and to center them at the various points of the strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Reports that the negotiations for the strike settlement were abandoned brought heavy offering of steel stocks on the market, but the sale of 18,000 shares caused a fall of only 3-4 in price. The preferred stock opened up an eighth, then yielded. Changes in the general market were narrow and mixed. Rock Island was off two points, and rubber preferred up nearly a point. Dealings were on a very small scale.

The stagnation of the market invited attacks by bears, which they centered upon sugar, driving that stock down 3-4. Declines of 1 to 1 1/2 were reflected in the principal grangers. Pacifics and Southwesterns and in Norfolk & Western, Pennsylvania and People's gas. Very light selling sufficed to cause the fall. Consolidated gas rose 1/2, and Long Island 1/2. Railroad bonds were dull, but irregular.

The strikers at Clark's mills in this city are very much discouraged at the turn affairs have taken with regard to the settlement of the trouble, and several of the most enthusiastic strikers have intimated their intention of returning to the plant at the earliest moment on the most favorable terms possible.

The strikers at Painter's mill and the Lindsay & McCutcheon plant are still enthusiastic, and say they will stay out until the leaders notify them to return to work.

At Wellsville, Ohio, the feeling is growing that there will not be an early settlement.

The strikers are not relaxing one iota of their vigilance. Every avenue of entrance to the town is being closely guarded. A McKeesport dispatch says:

"The presence of three supposed strike breakers was the cause of considerable excitement here last evening. The first of the supposed strike breakers was discovered about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and gave his name as Edward Meyers. He frankly announced his intention of going to work in the Dewees Wood mill, and was told just as frankly by the patrol which was questioning him that such a move would result in some accident occurring to him. He was put on a street car and taken to Pittsburgh by several strikers. Two more men were found in the evening, and after considerable questioning were requested to leave town. They promised to leave, and then gave their guards the slip. Patrols made a search for them during the night, but could not locate them. The strikers threaten to handle them without gloves when they are found."

Fifteen striking structural iron workers attacked a number of non-union men unloading iron at Wilkensburg, Pa., this morning, and Charles Force, one of the workmen, was seriously injured. The workmen, reinforced by a number of policemen and about one hundred citizens, attacked the strikers, who retreated and disappeared in Fern Hollow. Search is still being made for the men, and should they be caught there will be trouble.

"I can't understand," said a customer to us the other day, "how a dry goods store can continue prosperous while claiming to sell at or under cost, for I assume that honorable merchants mean just what they say."

This lady was not aware that the advertised articles are but a small portion of a firm's stock, and that only extraordinary values can find their way into print. A merchant who advertises falsehoods is doomed to failure. No wise one would do so.

RASCAL NEATLY CAUGHT.

Bragged of His Crime and Betrayed by a Hidden Telephone.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—In connection with the work of the postal inspector's office a story is told of a young attorney who unwittingly gave evidence against himself. He had written an improper letter to a married woman and was suspected by the husband, who accused him of the crime. After having led him to an inner office, the doors of which he locked, the attorney displayed a loaded revolver, admitted his crime and taunted his accuser. How to entrap him was the question, as he denied the charge in public, but laughed at the man in private. After the expenditure of much thought, a miniature telephone was contrived, with an almost invisible transmitter in the top of a silk hat worn by the aggrieved husband, with an insulated fine gold wire connecting with the receiver in the possession of the postal inspector. Another visit was paid to the attorney's office, and again, behind closed doors, he acknowledged repeatedly that he had sent the letter. As the inspector at the other end of the telephone had heard every word, he confronted the attorney with such evidence that he broke down and confessed.

North Atlantic Squadron.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 2.—The vessels of the North Atlantic squadron will leave Newport next Monday for a month's cruise. Rear Admiral Haggson proposes during that time to continue the land drills at Nantuxet. The squadron is expected to return to Newport early in September to participate in the maneuvers.

Colorado's Celebration.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 2.—The principal feature of the Colorado quarto-centennial celebration in this city today was an address by Theodore Roosevelt, Vice President of the United States, on "The Growth of a Century." On his arrival this morning, Colonel Roosevelt was welcomed by Governor Orman and staff, war veterans, school children and many others. At 10 o'clock he was escorted to the North Park, where he spoke to the open air to an assembly of 10,000 people, who gave him an enthusiastic reception and frequently interrupted his remarks with applause.

Out of the Tomb

NEW YORK, August 2.—David L. Scott and Morris Meyers, jointly indicted with Albert T. Patrick, in connection with the alleged forgery of a will of William Marsh Rice, were released from the Tombs today on deposit of $25,000 each. They had been in the Tombs since March 20th.
